

We just want to say that we really enjoy the service that Sonic.net provides. It is reliable, fast and inexpensive. If you were to change the way that the ISP's work we would no longer be able to use sonic.net. Our costs would go up and we wouldn't be able to afford it. We also like getting our emails from sonic.net. Just please don't change anything, we like things just the way they are!